Step back in time with vintage character and country charm!

Built in 1864, this well-maintained home in Big Pool, Maryland, blends historic appeal with peaceful rural living. Set on almost one acre surrounded by open fields and rolling views, it offers a tranquil setting where you can enjoy beautiful sunset views of the countryside. Inside, youâ€™ll find two comfortable bedrooms, one full bath, and a kitchen filled with solid wood cabinetry. The metal roof provides lasting durability, while the carport offers convenient covered parking. Thoughtful care and preservation highlight the homeâ€™s vintage character, showcasing details that reflect its 19th-century roots.

Located just minutes from Fort Frederick State Park and the Potomac River, youâ€™ll love easy access to fishing, hiking, and historic sites. Despite its peaceful setting, youâ€™re only 15 miles from Hagerstown and close to local conveniences. Whether you're an investor or looking for your own home, don't miss this one! Call for your showing. Please do not go onto the property without a scheduled showing.
